STANDARD ORGANIZATIONAL PLANS OF GDR PEOPLE-OWNED ENTERPRISES

The following are standard organizational plans of a small, a medium-sized, and a large VEB (people-owned enterprise) in the GDR (German Democratic Republic). According to statute, a large enterprise is directly controlled either by a ministry or by one of the HV (main administrations) of a ministry and employs as a rule more than 1,000 people. A medium-sized enterprise is controlled by a VVB (federation of people-owned enterprises) and employs as a rule 300-1,000 people. A small enterprise is one that employs less than 300 persons.

50X1-HUM

The letter designations given on the diagrams for the principal subdivisions of the enterprises are derived from the German names of the units and are used as codes to refer to them.
